Kim Martin Receives Promotion at Satellite Logistics Group

HOUSTON (December 4, 2008) – Kim Martin has been named Human Resources Manager for third-party beverage logistics leader Satellite Logistics Group of companies (SLG). In this new position, Martin will oversee and develop the company's talent management strategies and recruitment efforts.

"Kim has demonstrated her passion for making Satellite Logistics Group the employer of choice for top talent," said Kevin Brady, president of Satellite Logistics Group. "With Kim in this new role, we can continue to build on the employee, customer and client relationships that keep Satellite Logistics Group's supply-chain efficiency operating at such a high level."

Most recently a human relations specialist, Martin has been involved in SLG's human resources department since August of 2007 and assisted in managing areas of, compensation, recruiting, and employee relations, among many others.

With more than 10 years of progressive human resources management experience, Martin has worked in a human resources role for companies such as Palmetto Health and Equitable Life/AXA. Martin earned her Master's of Science degree in human resource management from the University of Central Texas and is also a member of the Society of Human Resource Management, along with being a certified senior professional in human resources.

Satellite Logistics Group of companies is an international leader in supply chain management specializing in the beverage industry, and provides integrated solutions to manage all facets of transportation, distribution and warehousing as well as cost-saving reverse logistics solutions or timely material recovery processes. Since being founded in 1984, Satellite Logistics Group provides complete supply chain management services and/or keg retrieval for breweries throughout North America and Europe.
