Dear Ms. Buks,

My name is Hussain Alkhafaji and I am a Journalism major at the University of Texas at Austin. I am truly honored to receive the Ward Creative Communications, Inc. Scholarship, and I would like to express my gratitude to your company for making this scholarship possible.

I have always maintained a keen interest in Journalism, and I made it a priority to take a course during my first semester in the discipline to determine whether I should pursue it. This course, "Fundamental Problems of Journalism", turned out to be wonderful and I developed a great personal connection with my Professor, Tracy Dahlby. We discussed contemporary problems facing the field of Journalism, lamented on past life experiences, and read many articles in publications ranging from The New York Times and The Washington Post, to the Texas Tribune.

It is clear to me that I have been afforded a once in a lifetime opportunity to attend this school and learn from such amazing faculty and staff. With this in mind, I have ensured that my performance academically mirrors this excitement and I am happy to report that I have ended this year with a high grade point average and work in a number of pursuits underway. During the spring semester, I worked as an intern in the Texas House of Representatives during the 85th legislative session. I was able to learn so much first-hand about Texas law-making, and focused on understanding healthcare legislation. This summer I am working as an Orientation Advisor for the Moody College of Communication in order to expand and improve my role as a leader for incoming students. I currently volunteer for the Seton Medical Center every Saturday, and every Sunday I teach a class to disadvantaged children at the Helping Hand Home for Children. One day out of the week I even volunteer in a mentorship-style experience sponsored by Big Brothers Big Sisters of Austin as well.

With the opportunity that I have been afforded through the Ward Creative Communications, Inc. Scholarship, I will be able to fully immerse myself in these endeavors and ensure that my time at UT exhibits a hard work ethic above all else. Thank you.

Sincerely,
