

Media contact:Ania Czarnecka
713-351-9165
aczarnecka@wardcc.comUCLA Extension Honors Larry Campagna, Managing Shareholder at Chamberlain Hrdlicka,
With the 2020 Bruce I. Hochman Award

Houston, Texas – (October XX, 2020) – Larry Campagna, the managing shareholder for national law firm, Chamberlain Hrdlicka, was recently recognized as the 2020 recipient of the Annual Bruce I. Hochman Award, at the 36th Annual Tax Controversy Institute at UCLA Extension, the preeminent conference in the United States dedicated to tax controversy and tax litigation. The award was presented during the Annual Bruce I. Hochman Award Luncheon, held virtually on October 21, 2020.

The award was established and is presented each year to an individual who demonstrates outstanding proficiency in the field of tax law and best exemplifies the principles that personified Bruce Hochman. Bruce Hochman, a leading attorney specializing in civil and criminal tax law litigation, was also a generous philanthropist and dynamic leader of various civic organizations. The distinguished personal and professional achievements of Bruce Hochman have been permanently honored through this award, which is selected each year by the Planning Committee for the UCLA Extension's Annual Tax Controversy Institute.

"Larry is incredibly deserving of the Bruce I. Hochman Award," said Nathan J. Hochman, a former head of the U.S. Department of Justice's Tax Division and son of Bruce I. Hochman, during the virtual award presentation. "He is the consummate professional and counsellor, practicing the legal profession with integrity and relentlessly advocating for his clients. Always the most prepared person in the room, Larry is widely respected by his peers and judges. It is my honor to know him and celebrate a career well-lived and well-living with this award."

Campagna developed a national reputation as an authoritative litigator in matters of business litigation and criminal tax defense, as well as federal, state and local tax controversies. Throughout his 43-year career, he has resolved thousands of civil and criminal litigation matters, many involving sophisticated and complex legal issues that established precedent in courts at all levels. Now at the helm of Chamberlain Hrdlicka, he assumed the managing shareholder role just three months before the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic and the collapse of oil prices. While meeting the current challenges facing our community, he is moving forward with his strategic focus for the firm. Firm diversity in the professional roles and in its management team will be a high priority, as will additional expansion of firm capabilities to evolve with the needs of clients.

Campagna generously gives his time and expertise to the legal community, with substantial participation in the American Bar Association, where he currently serves the Section of Taxation as the Vice Chair for Administration, as a member of its Council, and as a member of the Committee on Appointments to the Tax Court. He previously chaired the Committee on Civil and Criminal Tax Penalties, the Task Force on Offshore Credit Card Cases, the Committee on Employment Taxes, and a subcommittee on IRS Investigations and Procedures. In Texas, he has served on the State Bar Section of Taxation Committee for Liaison with the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Well-published, Campagna is a co-author of the casebook Tax Crimes, published by Lexis-Nexis, and he frequently speaks at industry events. As an Adjunct Professor at the University of Houston Law Center, he teaches a course on tax crimes and money laundering. He serves on the Advisory Board of Editors of the Journal of Tax Practice and Procedure. In support of the arts, Larry serves Houston's Alley Theater as an Advisory Board member and past chair of the Individual Giving Committee. He is also a big supporter of public broadcasting and a champion of the firm's United Way campaign.

Recognized by the legal community and his peers, Campagna was unanimously inducted as a Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel in 1995, where he now serves his second three-year term as a Regent. In September 2020, he was named among the recipients of Texas Lawyer's 2020 Professional Excellence Awards in the Lifetime Achievement category. He's been listed among Best Lawyers in America annually since 2010, including being named as 2014 and 2016 Lawyer of the Year Houston Litigation and Controversy – Tax. He continues to be ranked in Band 1 nationally and in Texas by Chambers USA since 2009 and has been named a Leading Lawyer by Legal 500. He has made the Texas SuperLawyers list annually since 2003 and has been named among the country's leading federal tax litigators by America's Top 100 Criminal Defense Attorneys since 2007. In 2019, Campagna was named a Texas Tax Legend by the State Bar of Texas, one of the highest honors for the Tax Law Section, with only 26 attorneys selected to date.

About Chamberlain Hrdlicka

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is a diversified business law firm with offices in Atlanta, Houston, Philadelphia and San Antonio. The firm represents both public and private companies as well as individuals and family-owned businesses across the nation. In addition to commercial and business litigation, the firm has expertise in tax planning and tax controversy, corporate law, securities and finance, bankruptcy, employment law, employee benefits/ERISA, energy law, estate planning and administration, intellectual property, international and immigration law, real estate, and construction law.

###